

The Sinclair Broadcasting's Anti-Kerry should be considered a campaign commercial and they are not acting in the public interest with regards to their next license renewal.